ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Aim of the workshop

The objective of the workshop is to gather researchers across disciplines to discuss how behavioral insights and the experimental method can improve our understanding of traditional public choice phenomena (bargaining, bureaucracies, elections, legislatures), as well as behavioral topics such as the role of culture, emotions and risk preferences in collective decision-making.

Workshop location

Council Room, North Quadrangle, University College Cork main campus

Organizers

Gregory J. DeAngelo (Claremont Graduate University), Glenn Harrison (CEAR, Georgia State University), Johanna Mollerstrom (George Mason University), Rustam Romaniuc (ETHICS, Catholic University of Lille), and Don Ross (University College Cork, University of Cape Town, and CEAR) are the organizers of this workshop. Funding is being provided by CEAR at Georgia State (cear.gsu.edu) and ETHICS at the Catholic University of Lille (lillethics.com/).

Contact

Should you have questions, please contact Rustam Romaniuc at rustam.romaniuc@univ-catholille.fr about the substance of the workshop, and contact CEAR at cear@gsu.edu with questions about participation and logistics.
